Fleming County, Kentucky

There are over 67 barn quilts scattered throughout the hills and valleys of Kentucky's Fleming County, officially named the Covered Bridge Capital of Kentucky.

Located in the Northern Kentucky River Region, in the outskirts of the famous Bluegrass Region and at the edge of the Appalachians, our county has more to offer than meets the eye. True Southern hospitality is our benchmark, and we believe that once you visit here, you'll want to come back. Relax in one of our bed-and-breakfasts, go antiquing in our local antique shops and buy authentic Kentucky-made arts and crafts in our art galleries and studios.

Visit Chamber of Commerce site at www.flemingkychamber.com for more information.

Note: Please use safety and respect when visiting these barn quilts, as they are on private property and should be viewed from the public roads. Always use caution when slowing or stopping near a quilt barn site.

Kentucky Department of Travel and Tourism

Information compiled by Donna Fryman. Thanks to Fleming, Mason Energy and Wind-Stream for their help installing many of the quilt squares.

The Fleming County Clothesline of Quilts

Come with us on a journey of discovery as we proudly introduce you to the Fleming County Clothesline of Quilts...

These barn quilts are a tribute to the pioneering women of Kentucky, who painstakingly created colorful and intricate patterns of scrap fabric into quilted bed coverings for the long, cold winters.

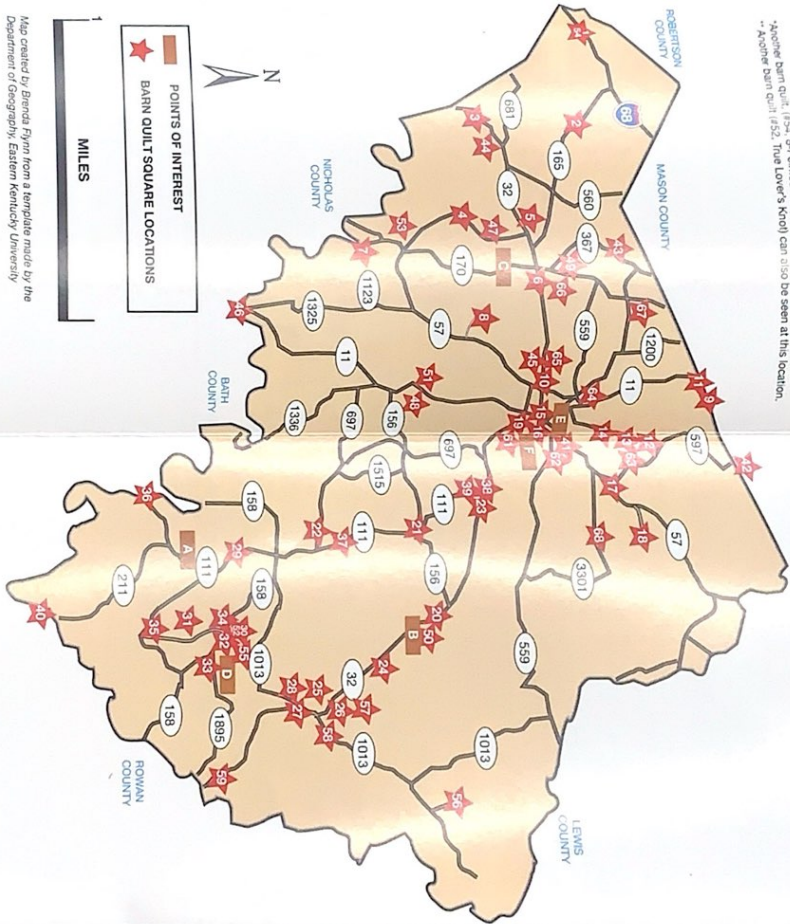

Many of these patterns have now been transferred onto wood and mounted on the traditional barns that dot the scenic countryside.
