9/11 First Responders Parade

On the 20th Anniversary of 9/11, a First Responders Parade and Luncheon was held. It truly was a beautiful day to honor and show our appreciation to Fleming County's First Responders and to remember those whose lives were lost on 9/11/2001.

We would like to say a special 'Thank You' to all our first responders for your service to our community.

Thank you to Sims Dairy Queen for preparing the delicious lunch; DAR and Museum Society to desserts and their contribution; FCHS for the use of their grounds for the event and FCA-TV for help with virtual program.

Holiday Hoopla

Get Ready for the 1st One in Flemingsburg

The Flemingsburg Tourist and Convention Commission invites you to take part in the upcoming HOLIDAY HOOPLA event. The second weekend in December the Tourist Commission has a family friendly extravaganza planned for you, your loved ones and your friends. Beginning on Friday, December 10th the weekend will kick off with the Annual Flemingsburg Christmas Parade at 5:30 pm, through the streets of downtown. After the parade ends, please join in on our Community Tree Lighting in the Flemingsburg City Parking Lot located across from the Fleming County Covered Bridge Museum. The fun doesn't stop there. Head on over to the Newman Memorial Park (Old City Park) for some family fun. From 6 pm until 10 pm on Friday evening, the park will host food & craft vendors, lots of photo opportunities, an ice skating rink and live musical performances. There will also be horse & carriage rides in downtown Flemingsburg for those of you who want to relax and enjoy the beautiful town we call home. On Saturday, the day will begin at 12 pm (noon) and go until 8 pm. The vendors, ice rink, music and carriage rides will still be available. As an extra array of excitement, fireworks will be set off around 6 pm. Don't miss out on this vibrant display. Plan to be in the park or a location in the City that has a clear view of the sky surrounding the Park. Sunday will be the last day of Holiday Hoopla. It will kick off at 1 pm with a golf cart parade. So decorate your golf cart in your favorite holiday design and join in on the fun. You never know...you could win a prize! Keep watching the newspaper every week for updates and more details on this upcoming event. If you wish to be a vendor, applications can be requested via email at: flemingsburgtourism@gmail.com or can be mailed upon request by calling 606-748-4000.

We are excited to welcome Pamela McGlone as our new Administrative Assistant. Pam has a diversified background in marketing, grant writing and project management. She has been a Fleming County resident for nearly 20 years and is married to Tony McGlone. They have one daughter, Madison.

We are happy to have Adam Egan as our Co-Op student this year. Adam is a senior at Fleming County High School, where he is active in various clubs and serves as FCCLA Vice President. He has been a resident of Fleming County for most of his life. Adam plans to attend Morehead State University next fall.

thank you

Sarah Gallenstein is the Business Services Coordinator for the KY Career Center in Maysville, KY. She graduated from Morehead State University with her Bachelors of Arts degree in June 2013 and recently earned a certificate in Human Resource Management from Eastern Kentucky University in April 2021. Sarah previously worked for Lowe's in Maysville, as an Administrative Assistant for two years before taking this position. She's been with the KCC since August 2021 and has been working with various employers and job seekers in our area to help bridge the gap and find success. The Chamber sincerely appreciates Sarah's commitment and help at our recent golf scramble.

As 2021 winds down, the Board of Directors, staff and volunteers of the Fleming County Chamber of Commerce, would like to thank you for your continued support and partnership in 2021. Your service and dedication means so much to this community and we will continue to be a strong advocate for you and your business in 2022!

Wishing you and your family peace, prosperity and goodwill this holiday season. God bless.
